Minister's Meditation

The Rev. Jennie Barrington, Interim Minister

"Help, Thanks, Wow" (Title of a book by contemporary spiritual writer, Anne Lamott)

Dear Members and Friends,

Anne Lamott, one of my favorite contemporary spiritual writers, says that the only prayers that are really necessary are "Help" "Thanks" and "Wow." I write to let you know that your Leadership Development Committee has succeeded in filling all of the open positions it is their responsibility to fill. This extremely important task took them many hours, believe me. I provided them with guidance and encouragement at most of their meetings. But I did not tell them what to do. UU congregations such as yours are governed by the members, not by the minister. It has been a real pleasure to assist the LDC with their work. They have been very thoughtful and caring in their discernment. Please thank them! They are: Tiffany Rushton, Chair; Andrea Derrick; Buzzie Kelly; Sandy Chubon; and Regina Moody. I also extend my huge thanks to everyone who, when asked to serve on a committee or the board, said "yes!" And I also offer a huge thank you to everyone who has served on a committee or the board who is stepping down. The names of these stalwart souls will be published for the Annual Meeting, which will follow the worship service on May 22nd (a light lunch will be provided). But I can write, here, how appreciative I am of the seven people who have agreed to serve on the committee to search for a settled minister. This will be one of the most important undertakings to occur in our congregation in a decade. The LDC worked with a rubric of skills and qualities which, when combined, would make for a successful team. The LDC and I are thrilled to have such excellent skills and qualities on UUCC's Search Committee. The seven members are:

Linda Brennison, Rod Brown, David Crockett, Rebecca Drennan, Brian Dudick, Ann Johnson, and Buzzie Kelly.

I truly hope to see you at the Annual Meeting on May 22nd! We will vote on a budget for the coming year, elect officers, trustees, and members of the LDC and Endowment Committee. And we will affirm the seven person slate for the Search Committee. And I also truly hope to see you for the worship service preceding the Annual Meeting! We will have a Bridging Ceremony for our graduating seniors, and also the Child Dedication and Naming Ceremony for baby Tripp. The worship service will be very beautiful and moving, as we honor different generations in our congregation, and recall, anew, how much we have to teach each other, and how much we are continually enlightened and enriched by each other.

With thanks and care, Rev. Jennie "It's a privilege to be here."

Reflections

Expressions

Gratitude Aplenty!

What a glorious celebration May 1st turned out to be. We worshipped, we ate, we purchased, we danced. Was anything missing? I think not. With so many wonderful people pitching in to create a magical experience for our congregation, the weekend was destined to be successful. My list of thanks is long and I hope inclusive.

Let me first start by thanking our brilliantly talented high schoolers and middle schoolers for their participation in the Beltane Ritual and service. (They were “voluntuded” into taking this on.) They planned, rehearsed and even drew the cover art. In just over 2 committee meetings, 2 class times and 3 hours of additional rehearsal, they put together that entire service! They met with Rev. Jennie and me a total of 8 hours to plan the service and practice running through their lines but I was the one who learned the most! I am so thankful they have again shared their talents with us. Bravo/Brava to our youth!

And then there were the numerous adults who either chaired an event or gave so much of themselves to ensure Beltane was a success.

Bethany – as always, your cheerful presence and thorough organizational skills were masterful. We know anything you touch will have special sparkle.

Gail – your quiet work-behind-the-scenes and creativeness always lend magic to all you touch and are involved with. Thanks for your energy and for your love of the printed material.

Cindy Blackman – your gentle guidance with directing our ritual to maintain its sacredness was priceless.

Nancie – your Maypole for the children was lovely and your talents at MCing an event-spectacular! And thanks for stepping up last minute to take on a role in the ritual.

Book schleppers – Linda McLeod, Morgan Maclachian, Emilio Perez, Adam Z., Benny, Buzzie Kelly, Santiago, Nancie (again), and Henry????? Thank you for your 4 hours of hard, hard labor and organizational talents. You made the book sale possible.

Beltane Crafters’ Faire – Storlazzi-Johnson family, Sullivan family, White family, Shillington-Perez family and Dawson family!!!! Your strong backs and giving hearts are what make this congregation the best place to worship in Columbia!

And to our congregation as a whole - thank you for supporting our youth!

Stephanie Palmer-Smith

Donations in the amount of $1,110 were made to NAMI in the name of UUCG, which is an amount to be proud of. Thanks to everyone who was involved in one way or another. Special thanks to Co-chairs Jeanette Walton and Cheryl Soehl.

News and Notes

Pledge Drive Update

We have received over $203,000 in 2016/2017 pledges. Thank you for your support of the funding goals for our budget. There are many pledge cards that have not yet been returned. Please get those cards in as soon as possible so we can finalize our budget. It is important that we know what funds will be available for our entire congregation, programs, and operating expenses.

You can email your pledge amount to uucc@uucolumbia.org. Pledge cards and envelopes are also available in the foyer and may be returned there, put in the collection plate, or mailed back. Thank you, Joe Long, Finance Chair

Treasurer's 2015/2016 Budget Update for 4/30/2016

Pledges needed: $180,050

Actual Pledges received: $169,355

Shortage: $10,695

To all who pledged to support the UUCC for 2015/2016:

If you have not paid your pledge or are behind in your pledge, please consider how much your promise means to the livelihood and continued viability of the Congregation. Pledged funds represent 85% of the income of the UUCC. Failure to receive pledges can create a serious lack of funding for all the UUCC's wonderful activities, not to mention the salaries of our minister and staff.

So, if you have pledged to support the UUCC, please be sure your payments are up to date. With grateful appreciation, Linda Brennison, Board Treasurer.

UUCC Delegates for UUA General Assembly

The annual UUA General Assembly will be held in Columbus, Ohio this June 22-26. The Board of Directors has voted its intent to approve a full slate of delegates to represent our congregation and to pay for part of the registration fee. If you are a member and are interested in being a delegate, please submit your name. Our congregation gets up to five delegates and we already have two names. If interested, please contact Richard Culler at bdmember3@uucolumbia.org.

Harvest Hope Food Donations

The UUCC Harvest Hope food basket is delivered each Monday to Harvest Hope where it is used in the distribution of groceries to the many hungry people who come to the food bank for help. They need items such as canned goods, pasta, flour, sugar, rice, cake mixes, and other non-perishable foods (no glass please).

Meals on Wheels for Pets

A beloved pet can be the only companion for many home-bound seniors. The animal mission of our congregation asks you to give a thought to these animal companions. Donate any unopened pet food or supplies in the Social Hall by the front doors.

Sunday Greeters Needed

Don Dodson is now coordinating the greeter program and looking for volunteers who would like to join our merry little group. Greeters have options of dates when they volunteer and it is usually from 10:30- 11:00 a.m. when services start. Occasionally we need someone from 10:00- 11:00 a.m. For many visitors this is their first impression of UU and a personal “good morning” and “welcome” always helps in creating a welcoming atmosphere. Please contact Don at ddodson@sc.rr.com.

Art Exhibit

“Connections,” an exhibit of art quilts by Janet Swigler in the Social Hall.

Chalice Pins For Sale Sundays

We have some nice UU chalice lapel pins that will be in a basket at the greeter table. We are asking for a $5 donation for each pin with all proceeds going to CYRE.

Calling Artists for Art Group

If you are interested in working on your art with others for support, encouragement and feedback, the Art Group is for you. We meet weekly on Thursdays from 10:00 a.m. -

Chair Yoga, Tuesdays

Chair yoga entails about 45 minutes of real yoga but it takes place mostly seated. It is ideal for people who want to improve flexibility but who do not like (or, for physical reasons, cannot do) the typical yoga class. Chair Yoga meets in the UUCS Social Hall at 11:00 a.m. on Tuesdays. If you are new to the group and have questions or would like to participate, please contact Ruthie Saunders rsaunders@sc.edu.

Writing Group

Please join us for the UUCS Writing Group on the second Tuesday of each month from 6:30–7:30 pm in Room 5. Feel free to bring something that you have written and would like to share with the group. Each month we will discuss different writing styles, topics for writing, and share our stories, biographies, poems, songs and anything else we can imagine. Proselytizing our faith? No way, you say!

But do you have website design and/or maintenance expertise along with some time to volunteer (from a few hours to an on-going specific commitment)? UUCS needs your skill. Contact Andrea (uucc@uucolumbia.org) for information about how you can help publicize and promote our congregation!

Stop Gun Violence Rally, May 12

As many of you as possible please join us on Thursday, May 12, at 11:00 a.m. at the State House for "Hands around the State House - Let's stop Gun Violence". This is in response to closing the "Charleston Loophole" in the South Carolina gun legislation. If you recall, last fall we signed letters to our legislators asking that they take action on this law and this rally is showing our support. We will actually meet at 10:50 a.m. on the Gervais Street side of the Capitol. If you have a Standing on the Side of Love shirt please wear it. Please give this your every effort to be there as a good showing is important!

UUCC Visitor Orientation, Sunday, May 15

Our next Visitor Orientation class will be held on Sunday, May 15 in the UUCC Library. We will begin about 15 minutes after service and usually end in about 45 minutes. Light refreshments are served. If you are new to the UUCC, or have come for a while and have questions, then this session is for you. This class is designed to help familiarize you with the principles of Unitarian Universalism and answer any questions you might have. UUCC Board of Trustees

Summary of February 17, 2016 Meeting

The Board of Trustees met February 17 from 6:30 PM to 9:57 PM.

Treasurer's Report

Linda Brennison reported that our revenue shortfall increased this month from $5,505.31 to $8,854.23. Revenues are under budget by 4.8%. Building rentals are over budget. No fund raisers to benefit the general budget have been held this fiscal year.

Ministerial Settlement Weekend is scheduled for March 5 & 6 with Rev. Ann Marie Alderman as the consultant/facilitator. She will meet with the Board on March 5 and she will explain the search process to all members of the congregation on March 6.

A question was raised about the role of the Leadership Development Committee (LDC) in the selection of a search committee for a settled minister. Our bylaws state that (1) we will use one of the search and candidating procedures recognized by the UUA and (2) that members of the ministerial search committee will be nominated by the LDC and elected by the congregation. Major questions remain about how/where the LDC's nominating function fits into the UUA process. Rev. Jennie agreed to inform Rev. Alderman about this dilemma before she makes her consultant visit in March.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Finance Committee The Annual Canvass will begin with a celebration on Sunday morning, February 28. The solicitation of pledges and collection of signed pledge cards will take place in cottage meetings held in members' homes. Sixteen families have agreed to host cottage meetings; a member of the Finance Committee and a Board Member will attend each cottage meeting; Rev. Jennie will attend about half of them.

UUCCWebsite Ad Hoc Committee Members of this group are Regina Moody, Donald Griggs, Caroline Eastman, Marc Drews, Andrea Dudick, and Brian Dudick. They have made progress this month and plan to launch the new website March 4, 2016.

NEW BUSINESS

Endowment Committee Member The Bylaws indicate there should only be one board member serving on the Endowment Committee; currently we have three. The Board voted to have Bob Whitaker replace Linda Brennison on the Endowment Committee. Another board member will rotate off the committee June 30.

Air Quality in RE Wing Board members agreed that we do not need to wait for a capital fund drive before we address the air quality issues in the RE wing. Peck estimated diagnostic tests costing $1500 and air duct cleaning costing $3425. Linda reported that we have a savings account set aside for "rainy day" problems. The Board voted to proceed with air testing and duct cleaning to be paid for by the UUCC savings account, the total cost not to exceed $5,000.

The Seven Principles of Unitarian Universalism

Grateful for the religious pluralism that enriches and ennobles our faith, we are inspired to deepen our understanding and expand our vision. We covenant to affirm and promote:

1. The inherent worth and dignity of every person
2. Justice, equity, and compassion in human relationships
3. Acceptance of one another and encouragement of spiritual growth in our congregations
4. A free and responsible search for truth and meaning
5. The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and society at large
6. The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all
7. Respect for the interdependent web of existence of which we are a part

If these principles reflect your understanding of the world and appeal to your sense of spiritual fulfillment, we invite you to consider membership in the Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Columbia. If you would like to discuss membership or if you would simply like more information, please speak to any member of the Membership Committee or of the Board of Trustees.
