"Staying Grounded in Hope as Darkness Comes," by Rev. Stephen Robinson

Message From Our Minister

The Blessing of Interdependence

I was watching the news a few nights ago, and as the network show came on the air, a voice sounded out:

Wildfires continue to rage in the Northwest

Four potential storms brewing in the Atlantic

But first, let's turn our attention to the election, that is just a few short weeks away.

Now, I may be transferring feelings and voice to my 11-year-old labradoodle, but I swear she looked up at me in that moment and said, "do you have any idea how ridiculous that sounds?" For the next few minutes I tried to talk to her about the importance of this upcoming election and all of the complications surrounding trying to have a fair election. I don't think I convinced her at all. I do wonder if we could give a voice to the plant and animal life around us, if they would be consumed with the same issues that we find so utterly important, conversations that consume our energy and time. Could they enlighten us to a different level of importance and urgency? What could we learn?

Most often, when I consider our principle that focuses on the interdependent web of existence, I feel the weight of responsibility. I feel the need to care for and protect all life around us. I feel the desire to do all I can to improve our air quality and lower the impact we have with pollution and waste. I take pride and gain a sense of purpose in knowing that the web of existence depends on us to do our part. Then I am reminded that the relationship is one of interdependence. If we are open, we have so much to learn and gain from this interdependent relationship.

Unigram Deadline

The deadline for the next issue is Sunday, October 11, for publication on Wednesday, October 14. Items submitted after the deadline will not be published. Please submit articles and announcements for the next issue to uucc@uucolumbia.org.

In a couple of weeks, we will pass the autumn equinox, a time when the sunlight begins to be limited and the ground grows colder. The web of existence has so much to teach us about how to prepare for and survive the cold, dark days ahead. The next few months will provide so many opportunities to listen and learn in the spiritual life of the UUCC. On October 4th, we will celebrate the blessing of the animals, when we will have a chance to express our gratitude and love for all animal life around us. We will offer and receive blessings on this day that is set aside to celebrate St. Francis of Assisi, a catholic monk who taught us to be interdependent with all of existence. We have the Day of the Dead celebration, cornbread communion, and so many other opportunities to move into our interdependent relationship, listen and learn.

In many ways, our autumn equinox came early, as COVID-19 brought our lives to a screeching halt. We have been living in some dark and cold days, and it is easy to get lost in the fog. The plants and animals around us know how to prepare for seasons like this, and sustain themselves, even in the most difficult of times. They stay connected to their energy and their hope. How blessed we are to have such great teachers and friends all around us.

Rev. Stephen Robinson

Thank You

The Free Medical Clinic

Dear UUCC, thank you for your contribution of $779.75 in support of The Free Medical Clinic and our patients. Your gift will help us to continue to support our patients' healthcare needs through much needed visits, medications and education programs, all at no cost to the patient. Thanks you for your continuing support and stay safe.

September Share the Plate Recipient: The Harriet Hancock LGBT Center

Half of our Share the Plate collection this month goes to the Harriet Hancock LGBT Center, which is the hub of lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender activity in the Midlands. The center offers a variety of resources including a free lending library, meeting spaces for LGBT-supportive groups, and a directory of LGBT-friendly businesses, organizations, and counselors while also serving as the headquarters for the South Carolina Pride Movement. If sending a check please write "Share the Plate" in the memo line or you can give by either going to our website, uucolumbia.org, and clicking on the 'donate' bar at the top of the page, or entering "abundant.co/uucc/give" in your browser.

You Can Donate Virtual Flowers for Sunday Service

Would you like a floral display to remember an upcoming birthday, anniversary, or a special memory? Sunday flowers are now possible during the pandemic. A beautiful virtual floral arrangement will fill the screen and a tribute will be read honoring the person or occasion. If you would like to send a picture of the person you are honoring, we will display it along with the flowers. If you have flowers growing in your yard to use for the floral picture, please include it. Send an email request with a brief paragraph (50 words or less) of what you would like read and the Sunday date you would like recognized to Linda McLeod (kitchen@uucolumbia.org). She will get back with you with further instructions about payment of the $30 donation. Your contribution to the flower fund will be moved to Share the Plate at the end of the applicable month.

UUCC Now Accepts Contributions Electronically

UUCC is a resilient community and although we've moved our ministry online during this crisis, we trust you will continue your generous support of UUCC and our community. Our eGiving service, Vanco, provides tools to make giving simple, safe and secure. It also allows you to designate your contribution to the funds you're most passionate about such as your Pledge and Share the Plate.

Give by either going to our website, uucolumbia.org, and clicking on the 'donate' bar at the top of the page, or entering "abundant.co/uucc/give" in your browser. If you should have any questions, need help, or more information, please contact our Administrator, Andrea Dudick, at uucc@uucolumbia.org or 803-799-0845, between the hours of 6am -Noon, Monday-Friday. Thank you for your generosity.

Through your contributions, we're able to share the message of our faith to our congregation and the larger community, giving people the strength and compassion needed to make it through difficult times such as these. Thank you again for supporting UUCC and the community we've all worked so hard to nurture.

UUCC Zoom Access Information "Meeting Info"

The access information for UUCC meetings delivered via the UUCC Zoom accounts can now be found on the UUCC website for Thursday-Wednesday of each week. To access this information:

Go to www.uucolumbia.org

Select the "News" tab dropdown menu and then "Meeting Info"

Password is "community" without the quotation marks

Please read the notes at the bottom of the listing. Meetings hosted on non-UUCC Zoom accounts may not be listed.

Scheduling UUCC Zoom Meetings Delivered via UUCC Zoom Account

While the pandemic is preventing us from being physically together, we can still come together to enhance connections and further our spiritual growth, as well as conduct the business of our congregation.

The UUCC has obtained two Zoom licenses for congregational use. The following are the steps to schedule a UUCC Zoom meeting using these:

Check the UUCC calendar at <http://www.uucolumbia.dreamhosters.com/news/calendar/> to determine availability for a date/time. NOTE: Two meetings can be held simultaneously (Z1 and Z2). You can schedule a recurring meeting, e.g., every Thursday 4-5 p.m., but make sure all these slots are available throughout the time period.

Contact Andrea Dudick by email at uucc@uucolumbia.org to confirm date/time slot availability.

You will be contacted via email by a UUCC Zoom Host with access information. The host will work with you to determine the assistance you might require in hosting your Zoom meeting.

The host will start the meeting and stay on as needed or leave the meeting making you or a designee the host.

NOTE: Use of the Zoom accounts follows the established policy on building usage, i.e., the use must originate from a UUCC committee or be approved by the Board and the event must be placed on the official UUCC calendar by our Administrator, Andrea Dudick (uucc@uucolumbia.org).

Goddess Workshop with Dr. Reed and Mckenzie, Saturday, September 12

Join us on Saturday, September 12 from 4:00-5:30pm via Zoom. In this interactive workshop you will learn and discuss the symmetry between Jesus's words and those of the Goddess Hokmah. You will be guided through ancient chants and feminine yogic practices from your chair to further open the door of knowledge. Community and discussion in an intentional safer space. Dr. Reed is a sufi ordained minister and academic and Mckenzie is a practitioner of yoga and healing arts. Both are Goddess enthusiasts and space holders. If you should have any questions please contact Mckenzie Scott at reassist@uucolumbia.org. You may sign up at: <https://bit.ly/uu-goddess>

UUC Book Club, Sunday, September 13, 6:30pm

Angie Dodd Rabon will facilitate a discussion of Immoral Majority: Why Evangelicals Chose Political Power Over Christian Values, by Ben

Howe. We will meet via Zoom. The UUC Book Club is open to all members and friends of UUC. We welcome new and returning participants. Please contact Ruthie Saunders if you have questions or would like more information: rsaunders@sc.edu

UUC Visitor Orientation Sunday, September 20

Our first Zoom Visitor Orientation will be held on Sunday, September 20, about 15 minutes after the service ends (estimated around 11:45am.) The Orientation usually lasts about 50 minutes. If you are new to the UUC, or have not participated for a while and have questions, then this session is for you. This class is designed to help familiarize you with the principles of Unitarian Universalism and answer any questions you may have. For more information or to RSVP, contact Nancie Shillington-Perez

Blessing of the Animals, October 4

Been wondering about this year's Blessing of the Animals? Have no fear, Reverend Stephen will have us onboard virtually after service on Sunday, October 4th! Details will follow in this month's eblasts! Or, you can contact me, Anita Grossman (Animal Ministry committee chair) at anitaj48@aol.com.

The Mountain Retreat Update

Due to COVID-19 our retreat at The Mountain scheduled for November 6-8 has been cancelled. However, The Mountain is encouraging visitors—but with certain restrictions in amenities. Several of us have decided to spend a few days at The Mountain the weekend of October 16-18. Please contact Joan Watterson at 803-381-7208 or Ginny Verne at 803-606-6260 if you are interested in joining or would like further information.

Social Action

Share the Plate 2021: Alternate Procedure

Covid19 has caused many of our usual UUCS committees and activities to seek alternatives to their normal procedures to allow them to continue functioning. Share the Plate has done well to keep our visibility by still having a representative join our service twice a month. We have also increased our Share the Plate offerings by providing the opportunity to contribute to the Sunday Flowers with the donation going to Share the Plate.

Unfortunately, Share the Plate, a subcommittee of the Social Action Committee, has recognized that it is not feasible to have the usual nominating and voting procedure for new recipients for 2021. This is not something that can be done electronically or virtually with the existing committee members or systems that we have in place. The Social Action Committee has discussed this and unanimously agreed that due to the pandemic our only choice is to keep the existing 2020 recipients through 2021.

We have every hope that we will be able to resume our usual Share the Plate nominating and voting procedure on the first Sunday of 2021. Thank you for your understanding and your continued support of this very important UUCS program.

Virtual Social Action Committee Meeting, Sunday, September 27, 1:00pm

If you would like login info, please contact socialaction@uucolumbia.org. Hope to see you all then!

Harvest Hope Food Bank Volunteers Needed

As always, please make sure to take your own safety into consideration first before volunteering. UUCS remains closed and recommends you stay home unless it's safe to go out. You can sign up for all volunteer shifts here.

Richland County Black Coalition (RCBC) Volunteers Needed

RCBC is a newly formed group of people in the Columbia area who are taking action to promote voter registration and participation in the elections. On a weekly basis they are distributing fruits and vegetables to people in poor communities and hosting cook outs with volunteers standing by to assist in explaining absentee voting and assist with registration. The coalition is in need of volunteers to assist with handing out food, voter registration and speaking to community leaders. If interested, please contact Elaine Cooper at 803-348-0911.

Feeding the Hungry at Transitions

Because we can no longer volunteer, please consider donating these things that Transitions needs: Brown lunch bags and plastic wrap; Bottled water; Heavy duty paper plates; Cans of Lysol and hand sanitizer and liquid soap. Click HERE to find out more about volunteering and support opportunities. Contact Elizabeth Igleheart about making donations and even pickup. Igleheart@TransitionsSC.org

Pet of the Month

UU Animal Ministry

Would you like to see a photo of your pet featured in the Unigram? The UU Animal Ministry is sponsoring a “Pet of the Month.” Please submit a photo and brief bio of your pet to: Linda Brennon, Board Liaison to the Animal Ministry at pastpresident@uucolumbia.org.

Pets of the Month September 2020

“Harry and Ellie”

Westies, Harry and Ellie, have graced the home of Anita Grossman for almost 12 years, since they were just a couple of months old. They have helped Anita in so many ways beyond pure companionship and protection. Anita says they remind her of the saying, “help me become the person my dogs think I am.” They are not only objects of her affection, but give her unqualified acceptance, making home that much more of a loving and joyful place to live.

Caring Committee

September 9, 2020

In coordination with the Minister, the Caring Network provides leadership in physical and emotional support to Members and Friends in time of crisis and need.

Highlighting Community Resources:

Mutual Aid of the Midlands -- Mutual aid projects are a form of political participation in which people take responsibility for caring for one another and changing political conditions, not just through symbolic acts or putting pressure on their representatives in government, but by actually building new social relations that are more survivable. Most mutual aid projects are volunteer based, with people jumping in to participate because they want to change what is going on right now. Mutual Aid of the Midlands is focusing currently on providing resources and support to the community in light of the CoVID-19 pandemic. For more information on Mutual Aid of the Midlands, (or to see how you can volunteer) contact us at: info@mutualaidmidlands.org. Please note, this email is for information about the organization. If you need help, please call the hotline (888-927-6679) or submit an aid request form online at (<https://docs.google.com/forms/d/1qzZOI8hGPC3qyPLbmIPfMyvMfHLiLVJF3jt7voRRq8/edit>)

If you have a special need or know of someone who does, please email caringchair@uucolumbia.org or call (or text to) 803-605-8625.

If you would like to help the Caring Network on an occasional or as needed and available basis, please email caringchair@uucolumbia.org.

*Please note that during this time of sheltering in place to prevent further spread of Covid-19 some activities of the Caring Network may be suspended. Visits, rides to medical appointments, shopping – all will be determined on a case by case basis with the safety of Caring Committee members and all members and friends of the congregation our primary concern. We are often able to help members and friends find community resources to fill the gaps in the services we usually provide in person. Moral support and a listening ear are always available.

“Even in a swarm, one divergent voice can cause others to act independently. You are influenced by others, but do not be fooled — others are also influenced by you. That’s why your actions and choices matter not only for your own life, but for the behavior of those around you.”

A Word About UU the Vote

The stakes couldn't be higher in the 2020 elections. Directly or indirectly, the issues so many of us care most deeply about—climate change, LGBTQ rights, immigration, racial justice and more—will be on the ballot in 2020. UUs are called to join forces with all people who want to organize our communities and our nation to #VoteLove and #DefeatHate. Let's UU the Vote in 2020. For more information, go to:

A Word About UUA Common Read for 2019-2020

Each year, the Unitarian Universalist Common Read is chosen by a committee including both headquarters and field staff of the UUA. Generally, these books are picked for their relevance to initiatives for action developed at our annual General Assembly (just held on-line in June). The books picked for 2019-2020 are An Indigenous Peoples' History of the United States by Roxanne Dunbar-Ortiz (Beacon Press, 2015) and An Indigenous Peoples' History of the United States for Young People adapted by Jean Mendoza and Debbie Reese (Beacon Press, 2019). Please consider checking out the Common Read at <https://www.uua.org/read>

Check Denominational Connections pages: (<http://www.uucolumbia.dreamhosters.com/connection/denominational-connection/>) for updates and connect with our wider UU world. (<https://www.facebook.com/uucolumbia/>)

The Seven Principles of Unitarian Universalism

Grateful for the religious pluralism that enriches and ennobles our faith, we are inspired to deepen our understanding and expand our vision. We covenant to affirm and promote:

1. The inherent worth and dignity of every person
2. Justice, equity, and compassion in human relationships
3. Acceptance of one another and encouragement of spiritual growth in our congregations
4. A free and responsible search for truth and meaning
5. The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and society at large
6. The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all
7. Respect for the interdependent web of existence of which we are a part

If these principles reflect your understanding of the world and appeal to your sense of spiritual fulfillment, we invite you to consider membership in the Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Columbia. If you would like to discuss membership or if you would simply like more information, please speak to any member of the Membership Committee or of the Board of Trustees.
